Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ)

General Program Questions

1. What Is The GMF Real Estate Club Wealth Building Program?

The GMF Real Estate Club (GMF-REC) Wealth Building Program is a membership-based community designed to help individuals build wealth through networking, education, and affiliate earnings. By inviting others to join the Club, you can earn monthly residual commissions while gaining access to real estate insights and opportunities.

2. How Does The Membership Affiliate Program Work?

It's simple! Each member receives a personal affiliate link. When someone joins through your link, they become part of your Backoffice, and you earn commissions on their membership each month.

3. Do I Need Real Estate Experience To Join?

No experience is required. GMF-REC is designed for everyone—from beginners to seasoned investors. You'll learn, grow, and earn alongside other members.

4. How Do I Keep My Account Active?

To remain active, you'll need a minimum of 4–5 referrals in your Backoffice. This ensures your account stays in good standing and continues generating residual income.

5. Is GMF-REC A Pyramid Scheme or MLM?

No. Our program is straightforward and transparent. Commissions are paid in a linear fashion, meaning no one is “above” or “below” anyone else. You earn based solely on your personal referrals.

Earnings & Referrals

6. How Much Can I Earn By Inviting Others?

Your earnings depend on how many people you invite. For example, 10 referrals can earn you $147 per month, while 30 referrals could generate $441 monthly—or $5,292 annually.

7. How Are Commissions Calculated And Paid?

Commissions are based on the number of active referrals in your Backoffice. Payments are calculated monthly and sent directly to your registered payment method.

8. Do I Earn Residual Income Every Month?

Yes! As long as your referrals remain active members, you'll receive monthly residual commissions once there is a balance of $15.00 in your back office and/or by the 15th day of each month.

9. Is There A Limit To How Many People I Can Refer?

No—there's no cap. The more people you refer, the greater your potential earnings are. See the REC Commissions Chart or the GMF REC Wealth Builder Strategy on the Recognition page.

10. What Happens If One Of My Referrals Cancels Their Subscription?

Your earnings adjust automatically. For example, if you had 10 referrals and 2 canceled, your income would be based on the 8 active members that remain.

11. How Can I Maximize My Earnings Potential?

Consistency is key. Keep sharing your affiliate link, engage with the community, and encourage your referrals to stay active by building their own networks.

Membership & Subscriptions

12. What Does It Cost To Join The GMF Real Estate Club?

It's Free to join; however, Membership costs are affordable and designed to give you maximum value. Upgrading with USD 49.00 a month allows you to participate in community activities and access privileged information.

13. Are There Different Membership Levels?

Yes, we offer membership options tailored to different goals—whether you're here for networking, earning, or real estate opportunities. You choose your level of involvement.

14. Can I Upgrade or Downgrade My Membership Later?

Absolutely! Members can adjust their membership level to match their goals at any time.

15. What Happens If I Miss A Payment?

Your account may become inactive, which could pause your commissions. Once payments are updated, your account can be reactivated. This also impacts the earnings for the person who has invited you.
